CORAM: SMT.RANJANA DESAI &
A.S.OKA,JJ.
DATE : DECEMBER 23, 2004.

P.C.:

1. One Liladhar Dattaram Nagvekar is undergoing imprisonment in the Kolhapur Central Prison. His mother Smt.Kalpana Dattaram Nagvekar has sent parole application addressed to the Additional Registrar, High Court, Bombay stating that her son may be released on parole because she is seriously ill. It appears that on the basis of adverse police report the Divisional Commissioner has rejected the application. We are informed that an appeal is provided against the said order.

2. We, therefore, direct that the

Superintendent of Kolhapur Central Prison should forward a copy of this application to Minister of State, Home and Prison who is the Appellate authority within a period of one week from the date of receipt of this order. We direct the Minister of State, Home and Prison before whom this appeal lies to decide the said application by treating it as an appeal within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of the appeal.

3. Writ to go immediately to Kolhapur Central Prison.

4. Petition is disposed of.
